A plea for "Greater Americanism," the topic of his address, was made by Dr. James Montgomery Sunday afternoon at the chautauqua. He referred often to the European war and declared that today the nations of the world were looking to America. Dr. Montgomery pleaded for the eradication of the hyphen in all foreign-born Americans.

The crowd Sunday was the largest that has ever been seen in the Coliseum and on the grounds at the opening day of the chautauqua. Practically every available seat was taken at the afternoon session and at night many extra seats were placed in the auditorium, but still many persons were compelled to stand.

The Hruby Bohemian orchestra was instantly popular and Gay Zenola MacLauren, the dramatic reader, held the interest of a large audience until ten o'clock last night with her reading of "The Sign of the Cross." The play was in keeping with the spirit of the day and won the hearty approval of chautauqua patrons.

Dr. Montgomery asserted that at the front door of every nation stands a great personality. He recalled the leading men in all countries and referred to George Washington as the greatest personality in American history.

"No nation," he said, "is comparable to ours in its origin. We came into the family of nations an example to self government and self restraint. At this momentous hour Europe, stained by the blood of dying people, is looking toward us. What is America! We need a baptism of the American spirit.

"One of the great sources of our national greatness is the infusion of foreign blood. One of the great weaknesses of some of the nations at war is the fact that only two per cent. of their blood is foreign.

"We do not want hyphenated Americans today. We are not German-Americans, French Americans, Swiss-Americans, Russian-Americans or even Irish-Americans, but we are all Americans. A spirit of

WILL ENTERTAIN CLARK

James E. Watson Will be Host to Speaker of the House Friday.

James E. Watson has claimed the privilege of entertaining Champ Clark, speaker of the national house of representatives, when he comes here next Friday to speak at the chautauqua. Mr. Watson has telegraphed Mr. Clark to learn whether he will be here in time for luncheon or whether it will be more convenient for him to take dinner at the Watson home. Whether it be luncheon or dinner, a number of local Democrats and Republicans will be invited to be guests of Mr. Watson, along with the speaker.

NEW ORDINANCE IN EFFECT WEDNESDAY

Will be Unlawful to Run Automobiles and Motorcycles With Mufflers Open After That.

FINE IS NOT TO EXCEED $25

The new muffler ordinance which prohibits the open exhaust on all automobiles and motorcycles will be in effect Wednesday and the police department is preparing to enforce it. The ordinance was recently passed by the city council after it was decided that the open muffler was a nuisance.

The ordinance provides that violations are punishable upon conviction with a fine not to exceed $25. Machines running with the mufflers open have been so numerous here that the police expect difficulty at first in enforcing the law, but expect to have it obeyed even if a few arrests are necessary to bring about the desired result, they say.

JOHN BELL IS HELD ON "TIGER" CHARGE

Trial is Set For Tuesday After he Pays Fine of Dollar and Costs
For Intoxication.

BACK FROM CONNSVILLE

Two charges, one of public intoxication and the other for operating a "blind tiger" were filed against John (Hot Stuff) Bell Monday afternoon in police court. He pleaded guilty to the intoxication charge and was fined one dollar and costs, but pleaded not guilty to the "tiger" charge. The trial was set for Tuesday afternoon.

Bell was arrested last Saturday night near the hitch rack by Chief Rosencrance. He had a small basket on his arm in which were three half-pint bottles, one pint bottle of whiskey and one quart of beer. Bell maintains that he went to Connersville and brought the "booze" here for certain parties and that he was not selling it. He stated that the men gave him the money for the liquor before he left Rushville to go to Connersville.

COMMISSIONERS MET.

The county commissioners were in session today, but did nothing except allow the usual claims. Some road work was discussed but no action taken.

The Red Men will have work in the adoption Tuesday night. A good attendance is desired.

ORGANIZATION IS BY COUNTIES

By-Laws of Hoosier Highway Association Formed at Wabash
Are Received Here.

NEXT MEETING AT ANDERSON

Effort Will be Made to Have Carl G.
Fisher And Secretary Dixie
Commission There

By-laws of the Hoosier Dixie Highway association, which have been received by the Rush County Chamber of Commerce here, provide for the formation of county organizations in all counties through which the proposed Hoosier Dixie highway connecting the Dixie Highway at Cincinnati with the Lincoln Highway at Elkhart shall pass.

The organization was finally formed at a meeting in Wabash Wednesday of last week and another meeting to perfect details of the organization will be held at Anderson Wednesday afternoon of next week at one o'clock. Several urgent letters have been received by the Chamber of Commerce here calling on Rush county to form a county organization and be represented at the meeting in Anderson. It is not yet determined what will be done.

The by-laws provide that "the purpose of this organization shall be to assist in promoting and building or improving and keeping serviceable a permanent highway connecting the Lincoln Highway at Elkhart to the Dixie Highway at Cincinnati through the following county seats: Elkhart, Goshen, Warsaw, Marion, Anderson, Rushville Greensburg and to endeavor to bring about a general plan of permanent highway building, and to have this route from the Ohio river to the north through the counties named uniformly marked and logged in all overland travel guides."

The by-laws further shall have headquarters at Marion, Ind., and that there shall be a local organization in each county through which this highway passes, under regulations to be provided by the board of governors. The officers shall consist of a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary-treasurer.

It will be seen that some amendments should be added to the by-laws. This is the purposes of the meeting to be held at Anderson next week.

"Members of this organization shall consist of citizens residing in the county where they reside," say the by-laws, "and the membership fee shall be one dollar per annum, to be divided between the local and general organization as the Board of Governors shall determine; said money to be used in promoting the efforts of this association."

Other paragraphs of the by-laws are of little interest, as they merely prescribe form for meetings and the details of general organization.

Joseph E. Hennings, of Anderson promised at the Wabash meeting that he would make an effort to have Secretary Galbraith, of the Dixie Highway Commission, of Cincinnati, Ohio, here for the meeting and also make an effort to have Carl G. Fisher, of Indianapolis, one of the two Indiana men on the commission, present at the meeting.

According to the plans of the association, roads between the various cities along the route will improve highways from one county to another and it is not the question of building a new road. According to figures that have been obtained the proposed route from Chicago to Cincinnati is but 265 miles which is about forty-five miles shorter than

CIGARETTE IS GEISEL TARGET

Institute Lecturer Urges Rush
County Teachers to Work For
Its Extermination

THE FIRST SESSION MONDAY

Would be Doing Her Duty, She Says,
if She Caused Teacher Who
Smokes to Lose Position

The annual session of the Rush County Teachers' Institute opened Monday morning in the auditorium of the Graham Annex with an enrollment of ninety. This number is expected to be increased before the week is over and the attendance record was considered excellent for the opening session. The Rev. D. Ira Lambert, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, led the devotional services, and the teachers heard two excellent addresses by Dr. Charles C. Ellis and Dr. Carolyn Geisel.

Both Dr. Geisel and Dr. Ellis are doing the institute work in connection with the Rush County chautauqua. The series of lectures by Dr. Geisel will deal with domestic science and the relation of health to good school work.

This morning Dr. Geisel arraigned the cigarette habit and urged the teachers of Rush county to keep tobacco in all forms away from the school grounds and out of the hands of their pupils. She pointed out how the cigarette and tobacco dulled the brain and thickened the memory even of the strongest children physically.

Right living, she declared, is necessary from the teachers as well as the children, if the teachers are to give the children their best efforts and the children to take advantage of these efforts. "Keep the cigarette off the school campus," said Dr. Geisel. "You might just as well not try to impress learning on a child if you do not keep the cigarette off the campus."

She urged the teachers to work for the extermination of the cigarette. The teacher, who smokes, was also criticized by Dr. Geisel. She declared that she would be doing her duty to the community, if she would go before the state board of education and cause any teacher here to lose his position because he smoked. "If I find, during my stay here any of you teachers who smoke," declared Dr. Geisel, "I am going to the state of Indiana and see that you lose your job. If you are going to be a school teacher, be a teacher in fact and not in name. The children copy after you and follow in your footsteps and it is your duty not to smoke."

She stated that during the week she hoped to be able to send the teachers back to their school work fired with the idea to keep the brain of the child clear. Dr. Geisel stated that only two out of every hundred students at Leland Stanford University, who smoke during their Freshman year, ever graduate. She pointed out that smoking affected the work of students in higher schools of learning less than those of Rush county and that the problem was a great one.

"As a man thinketh, so he is," said Dr. Geisel, "and as educators we mark the memory tablets of the children. To do this successfully smoking must not be allowed. The mental and physical body go hand in hand, but the child with a clear brain is generally the healthier."

Dr. Ellis spoke on the subject, "The Meaning of Education." He pointed out the leading educators

Red Cross Appeals For Aid in Alleviating Mexican Conditions.

(By United Press.)

Death and collapse from starvation are frequent and the poor are eating leaves, grass, dead horses and mules, he said.

REAR GUARD MAKES WONDERFUL FIGHT

Russian Forces Along Narew Determinedly Holding up Germans
While Army Evacuates.

RETIREMENT EASTWARD IS ON

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, August 2.—The Russian armies falling back from Warsaw are fighting one of the most magnificent rear guard actions the world has ever seen. All forces standing along the Narew and west of the Polish capital are determinedly holding up the Germans while the main body of Slavs continue the retirement eastward.

So effective is the Russian defense just outside the gates of the city that military men declare today that Warsaw could never have been won by direct assault. The great Austro-German siege guns and the massed forces of the enemy could not have battered their way into the capital, they held, and the capture of Warsaw was only made possible by the progress of the Austro-Germans along the Lublin-Cholm line.

DISTRIBUTION OF FUND IS DELAYED

Automobile Registration Money Will
Not Arrive Until Gravel Road
Mileage is Revised.

RUSH COUNTY WILL GET MORE

The distribution of the money received by the state from the registration of automobiles and motor vehicles in the office of the secretary of state will be delayed slightly this year owing to the necessity of revising the number of miles of free gravel roads in each county. The fund accumulated from the registration of automobiles is divided among the counties as follows: one-third shall be divided equally among the counties; one-third shall be divided among the counties in proportion which the number of miles of free gravel roads in the county bears to the whole number of such roads in the state; one third shall be divided among the counties on the basis of the amount received from the counties from such registration tax.

Rush county will receive more money this year than last because in the revised mileage sent to the secretary's office by J. C. King, highway superintendent, the total number of miles is placed at 280. This is twenty more than last year and will mean an increase to the free gravel road fund of the county.

MAKES A REPLY TO HIS CRITICS

Secretary of Commerce Redfield
Proposes Investigation of Lakes
Inspection Service.

BY A BOARD OF INSPECTORS

He is Threatened With Murder in Unsigned Letters as Result of Eastland Disaster.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, August 2.—The entire federal steamship inspection service will be investigated by Secretary Redfield of the Commerce department if formal charges are made against it. Immediate investigation of the inspection service on the Great Lakes will be made by a board of five supervising inspectors.

This was the secretary's reply today of critics of his policy in regard to the Eastland disaster.

The great Lakes investigating board will be made up of five men who will be elected by Supervisor General Uhler from a list of supervising inspectors announced by Redfield. Two of the inspectors in Redfield's list have been mentioned in testimony concerning the Eastland's previous relations with the federal inspectors.

The appointment of a representative commission by the president to investigate the inspection service was suggested by Redfield.

He said that he favored also the creation by congress of a court of appeal before which decision of federal inspectors as to the passenger capacity of a vessel could be taken by citizens disagreeing with the same.

Threats of murder were made against Secretary of Redfield today in unsigned letters received by him. One letter apparently written by a woman said:

"If you don't get out of Chicago we'll push you in the river like you pushed the people off the Eastland in."

"MURDER."

Another read: "If you don't behave you'd better get out of Chicago."

MARTIN REUNION.

The reunion of the Martin family, consisting of seven brothers, and their families reside in Indiana, Illinois and Montana will be held at the home of R. H. Martin on the Weeks farm, south of the city, Aug. 5 to Aug. 12. Three of the brothers are ministers; one a lawyer; one a professor and two are farmers. They will be the guests of the Mens' Bible class of the First Baptist church on Tuesday, Aug. 10.

There will be a meeting of the Modern Woodmen at their hall tonight, at 7 o'clock, to arrange for the funeral of W. F. Ogborn, of Cambridge City, Ind. The members are urged to be present.

Can? or "Canned?"

This quotation from the Insurance and Investment News hits the advertising nail on the head. The man who thinks he can, finds the way and sells the goods.

If he has no market he makes one.

He advertises in the daily papers and lets people know HE CAN.

He dies not sit and worry about dull times.

this sort needs to get abroad in this land."

Dr. Montgomery defined Americanism. He said it was not only physical, but commercial and military—somewhat. He said the United States is the greatest land under the sun and that appreciation of its physical aspects was lacking. He called attention to its size by recalling that Japan could be placed in the state of Montana and that there would still be room for a border seven miles wide clear around it.

Dr. Montgomery asserted that we must have a commercial basis for a higher civilization. He asserted that the United States had been accused of commercialism and that charge was repeated when this country took over the Philippines. But he pointed to the sacrifices of men and money the United States had made to improve the civilization of those islands and to prepare the people for ruling themselves.

Dr. Montgomery asserted Americanism is military, but qualified that statement by using the word "somewhat." He recalled that seventy-one cents out of every dollar of taxes is for war past, present and future.

"Let us have peace," was the earnest plea. The speaker said that some had complained of conditions in Mexico, but he cited that fact that out of the fifteen million inhabitants here, only fifty thousand are pure Mexicans.

Dr. Montgomery did not deny that the martial spirit had done great things for this nation and that it had contributed much to Americanism.

"We have no right to encourage foreign commerce unless we protect it," was one statement he made.

"In this hour," he said, "we are not only Americans, but we are patriots." The higher Americanism stands for man, the individual, rather than the institution. When the institution stands against the time-honored rights of man, the institution should come down.

"It also stands for the primary tenet that the people have a right to

In the third place, he declared higher Americanism stands for international peace. Every morning as one reads the newspapers, he said, one is accustomed to ask: "What next? Will the sparks be falling on us?"

"For twenty years," he added, "I have been preaching the brotherhood of men. Now millions of men are at each other's throats. The nations of Europe are headed toward Jericho. Let Columbia be the good Samaritan."

"May our mission be, the world is our country and to do good is our religion."

The Hruby Bohemian orchestra proved its versatility by its Sunday programs. The organization did not have to rely on orchestra numbers, but had many arrangements of instrumental solos, duets, trios and quartets. A solo on a one-stringed instrument in the afternoon won a long encore and a cornet trio was also especially deserving of commendation.

It is doubtful if patriotism was ever roused to a higher pitch in Rushville by music than that last night. When the orchestra played an arrangement of patriotic airs, twice the people rose to their feet and applauded.

"Is it any wonder men will fight to music like that?" exclaimed a woman in the audience, and that about expressed the sentiment of the audience.

Dr. D. H. Dean, the president of the chautauqua, made the opening address, welcoming the people to the assembly. Dr. D. H. Dean, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the devotional exercises.

Chautauqua Notes

There was less confusion for the size of the crowd at the opening day of the chautauqua of 1915 than ever before. It was the cause for general comment.

Chautauqua patrons are sure they are going to be well pleased with the platform manager, Dr. C. C. Ellis. He moves the programs off with dispatch and precision. Persons who go on time expect the program to be started on time, and those who are late can expect nothing but to miss a part.

The "Rubies" received one of the most generous receptions ever accorded a musical organization opening the chautauqua here. Their very first offering proved them exceptional and the crowd both afternoon and night was loathe to see them leave the platform.

Platform Manager Ellis made it plain Sunday night that the chautauqua management would appreciate it if parents would keep their children by their side during programs and thus lessen the chances for noise.

Although it amounts to very little, chautauqua patrons are urged to remember that the Royal Male Welsh Singers and Hellen Keller have changed places on the Tuesday evening program. The Welshmen will appear at 7:30 and Hellen Keller at 8:45. This will give everyone ample time to arrive in time to hear Miss Keller. The chief thing to remember is that both of these wonderful attractions are Tuesday night.

The "Rubies" showed themselves Sunday to be a wonderfully versatile family. There are eight of them, six young men and two girls—all brothers and sisters. The eldest introduced the family Sunday afternoon and it seemed like a homecoming.

The "quiet zone" is effective at the chautauqua this year. It was given a trial last year and was found to be effective. A fence was erected around the Coliseum about twenty feet from each side. An order of the management compels that there be no loud talking or other noise inside that fence while programs are in progress.

The committee in charge prepared the Coliseum and grounds in good style for this year's chautauqua. The interior of the building was scrubbed and Sunday it looked "spic and span" in its best "bib and tucker." The stage was very tastefully decorated. Large flags have been placed on top of the electric light poles on the grounds and a large one floats from the pole on top of the Coliseum.

The chautauqua grounds are well policed this year. There are enough men to preserve order and prevent confusion and unnecessary noises.

Dr. James S. Montgomery, whose eldest brother, Edwin, who is a descendant of Shelbyville, was born here when his father was pastor of the M. E. church in the days when it stood at the corner of Julian and Third streets, said Sunday afternoon there were two or more such radiant spots on the map than Rushville and Shelbyville, but that he would have to place Shelbyville first because it was there that he was born.

Dr. Ellis, the platform manager, will be a very busy man this week. Besides his arduous duties at the helm of the chautauqua, he will lecture once or twice every morning during the week at the teachers' institute and a few times in the afternoon at the chautauqua. He lectured Monday afternoon at 2:45 on the topic, "Day Dreams and Hard Knocks."

Dr. D. H. Dean, in his capacity as president of the Rush county chautauqua welcomed the first audience Sunday afternoon. He said great things were hoped for this year's assembly. Dr. Dean, being a physician, said there wasn't any question but that the chautauqua salute was unsanitary under certain conditions. Laughingly, he urged that chautauqua patrons bring their clean handkerchiefs and leave their "old rags" at home.

Dr. Ellis said he was happy in the recollection of the two times he had been here previously, that he would like to congratulate the people of the county on the unusually fine program for this year. Looks like the program committee, which made the program what it is and spent a lot of time at it, has some credit coming, too.

The oldest member of the Hruby Bohemian orchestra explained that in America they pronounce their name "Ruby" because no one here found it possible to sound the "H" and "R" together. He said that they were all Bohemians, although he was the only one born in Europe.

"We have been somewhat limited today because it is Sunday," he added. "But our name, in a literal translation, means rough and we promise to let loose a little tomorrow (Monday) and give you some rough stuff and novelty numbers."

Monday night will be the last chance to hear the "Rubies."

The platform manager said he would endeavor to start all programs on time. Dr. Ellis, in making the opening announcements Sunday afternoon, took due notice of the fact that the first few rows were occupied by little folks. He said that management was glad to have them there, but that they were expected to be still for some time they might grow up and be on the platform in the role of an entertainer.

AUTOS FOR MAIL SERVICE

Uncle Sam is Preparing to do Away With Old Dohin

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 2.—The time is rapidly approaching when the farmer will receive his mail via "jitney." Uncle Sam today placed in operation 105 autos for rural mail delivery in various parts of the United States, but not in Indiana.

However, Tippecanoe county already is trying out auto delivery in the country. The plan is to double the length of the routes, making them 50 miles instead of 25, thus decreasing the number of carriers and giving those still employed more pay.

"I-Want-U" is coming to town. Watch this paper for announcement of arrival.

A marriage license was issued Saturday afternoon to Edward Donald Carpenter and Pearl Isabel English.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars or any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

MORIBID CROWD AT BECKER'S FUNERAL

Ten Thousand Jam About Home Monday and Police Have to Beat Them Back With Sticks.

MANY FLORAL OFFERINGS

New York, August 2.—Ten thousand morbid curiosity seekers crowding around the home of Charles Becker, electrocuted at Sing Sing, delayed the start of the Becker funeral procession today until mounted policemen beat them back with their sticks. Several scuffles and fist fights occurred near the hearse. Mrs. Becker made her way with difficulty to her carriage.

Floral decorations reflected the feeling of the Becker family and friends. "Sacrificed to politics," read one floral piece in letters four inches high. "To the Martyr With Sincere Sympathies," said another. At the cemetery the undertakers were compelled to remove the former before they could get in the gate.

WAR HAS HELPED LEAD COUNTRY

Town of Fredericktown, Mo., Has Been Rejuvenated Because of Increased Business

ALL MINES ARE NOW WORKING

(By United Press.)
Fredericktown, Mo., August 3.—While the European war, in the words of one of the current crop of war ballads, is "Making widows out of mothers" and "Butchers out of brothers," in a way that rhymes conveniently, it is doing things for Fredericktown in the way of prosperity that Fredericktown never before dared dream could be done. Fredericktown is just one of the hundreds of "lead towns" in Missouri and its case is typical.

Before war was declared Fredericktown was voted a good town to avoid. Lead was dropping like "lead" in all markets. By the ton the product sold for less than $60. There was no big demand and there was a whole lot of the mineral already brought to the surface waiting to be used. Stores closed up, boarding houses reduced their demands on the markets and gradually were closed, patches of vacant houses appeared and gradually enlarged until they merged. Fredericktown was so nearly dead that nearly by towns facetiously inquired of the coroner when he was going to hold the inquest.

Then it happened. The soldiers used up all the bullets they had and there was demand for Fredericktown product. Laborers flocked back to the city. The shutters were removed from store and boarding house windows. Machinery began to move again, creaking at first and then developing a business-like industrious hum. Lead jumped from less than $60 a ton to $90 in leaps of from two dollars to five dollars and the men underground produced the death-dealing metal for shipment to Europe.

Now Fredericktown is thinking of sending to some big city for a civic expert to develop the beauty of the city. The war has boomed the lead country.

REPUBLICAN WINS SUIT

Kritenstein is Declared Elected in Vigo County Sheriff.

(By United Press.)
Rockville, Ind., August 2.—George W. Kritenstein, Republican, was today declared legally elected sheriff of Vigo county over Dennis Shea, who is serving time in Leavenworth prison with Former Mayor Donn M. Roberts of Terre Haute and other officials.

Kritenstein was declared elected by 145 votes. The decision of the contest by Judge Sunkel established a precedent in that one whole precinct was thrown out because it was so permeated by fraud that the legal and illegal votes could not be separated.

Beautifying Property

Would you increase the value of your town property if you could? It is easy to do and worth doing. Get busy on it; clean it up; repair and paint up; grade your grounds, if they need it; keep your walks in good condition and add new ones where required; cut the weeds and keep them down, both on and adjacent to your property; don't throw trash in the street or the back yard; keep up your fences, if you have them; grow plenty of flowers and neat shrubbery, and Make it a place of Beauty.

Then go around and brag like the dickens to your neighbor about YOUR place, and keep on bragging until you make him jealous of its beauties and he goes to work and does the same with his.

Then let him on the secret and start him out to rubbing it into his neighbors, and see that he keeps it up until they, too, become tired of the contrast and bragging and get busy on their own property with a determination to outdo the rest of you.

And in time the whole city will become jealous of the property of each other and every fellow will be whooping it up to see who can have the most attractive place.

Then the traveling public will come along and take notice, and go away and talk of the beauties of our town and the thriftiness of our people, and other people will want to come and live in such a fine community.

And isn't it easy to see that your property then will be worth nearly double what it is today?

JITNEY OWNERS TO FURNISH BOND

Gary First City in State to Require Them to Give Indemnity Bonds, Ordinance Ready

THRIVING IN THAT CITY

(By United Press.)

Gary, Ind., Aug. 2.—Gary expects to be the first city in Indiana to require jitney bus owners to give indemnity bonds. The city's legal department has prepared an ordinance to be voted on at the next meeting of the city council.

A thorough discussion of the matter followed the appearance of Chief Heintz before the council. Heintz is out gunning for the jitneys. He called every one of the drivers into his office and laid down strict rules for them to follow under pain of arrest.

But the jitneys are thriving nevertheless. Forty-four lines are being operated, according to the latest count. That represented an increase of nine lines in two days.

Meanwhile, the traction company is in the courts, and an application may be made for a receiver.

TO HOLD AN ALL DAY LOVE FEAST

Columbia Club Plans State-Wide Republican Gathering For State Fair Grounds

TAKES PLACE NEXT MONTH

Names of Speakers And Exact Date Will be Announced in The Next Few Days

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 2.—One of the really big political events of the year in Indiana will be the meeting to be held by the Columbia Club at the State Fair Grounds in September.

The affair will be in the nature of an all day love feast and barbecue and will be held in honor of the 1,800 new members of the Club who have joined the organization since special campaign for new members was launched in April. Members of the Club, their families and friends will be invited; and the affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable political events held in this state recently.

Speakers of national repute will be secured for the occasion and in addition, a large number of persons prominent in political circles in the state will deliver short addresses. All the Republican candidates for Governor, United States Senator and the several state offices are expected to be present and will be given an opportunity to be heard.

The Columbia Club during the last three months, has enjoyed a phenomenal growth, the membership list having been increased nearly threefold during that time. The Club has tendered its services to the Republican State committee in the coming campaign; and thus offer has been accepted by that organization. It is believed that the Club, with its large membership extending into practically every county in the state will be a potential factor in assisting the regular state, district and county organizations during the coming campaign.

The plan to hold a great Republican meeting at the State Fair grounds in September is receiving the enthusiastic support of party leaders from all over the state; and it is expected that Republicans all over Indiana will bring their families and participate in the festivities of the day. Special committees have been appointed to work out the details of the meeting. The service of a professional chef, one who is an adept in the art, has been secured; and choicest viands in great abundance will be served in the good old Hoosier style.

The names of speakers, the exact date on which the meeting will be held, and other matters of detail will be announced within the next few days. In the meantime the members of the Club throughout the state, many of whom have already expressed themselves in the most sanguine terms concerning the meeting, will look forward with pleasure to the occasion as an opportunity to become acquainted with each other and to get in close touch with the real spirit of the 1916 campaign.

SAYS PROPERTY PLACED TOO LOW

Gary Man Creates Furror by Saying Assessments in State Are 20 Per Cent of Value

APPEARED BEFORE TAX BOARD

Occured During Hearing to Raise Assessment of Indiana Steel Company of That Place

BY DANIEL L. BEEBE
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Indianapolis, Aug. 2.—That twenty percent is the general assessment on property in Indiana, take it the state over, was assertion Henry McCracken, vice president of the Gary Commercial Club, made before the State Tax commission.

And by that statement McCracken brought down upon himself a torrent of questioning and objections that made him seek the table and prespire freely.

The members of the state tax commission objected to the assertion that Indiana property, generally speaking, is assessed on the basis of twenty per cent and asked McCracken to cite instances. McCracken named the Studebaker plant in South Bend, the Bowser pump plant in Fort Wayne and the Inland Steel company in Lake county. He said the pump company probably was assessed at less than twenty percent.

The ears of John M. McFadden in Gary must have burned during the hearing. He is the assessor of Calumet township which includes Gary. McCracken declared that McFadden had told him he made his assessment of the Indiana Steel company ($5,646,485) and of other Gary property on a twenty percent basis and that various trips McFadden had taken over the state had convinced him that the average assessment in Indiana was on a twenty percent basis.

At this, state auditor Crittenger demanded to know more details of McFadden's statement, saying that McFadden had told him he had heard this generally talked at state meetings of the assessors. Other assessors in the room were asked whether they had heard anything of the kind talked about at state meetings, and replied they had not.

The board cited the case of one lot on Gary's main street which was assessed at $3,000. McCracken admitted that this lot probably was worth $12,500, and admitted hearing a rumor that this lot and another beside it, both improved, had sold for $76,000.

The 20-percent discussion came up during the hearing of the appeal for a higher assessment of the Indiana Steel company, which, it was claimed, was assessed at 20 per cent of its true value.

| Ford Runabout | $390.00 |
| Ford Touring Car | 440.00 |
| Ford Town Car | 640.00 |

No speedometer included in this year's equipment, otherwise cars fully equipped.

There can be no assurance given against an advance in these prices at any time. We guarantee, however, that there will be no reduction in these prices prior to Aug. 1, 1916.

Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914, we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between August 1, 1914, and August 1, 1915, we would share profits with the retail purchasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-15 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally, makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date.

We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September and October, 1915.

COMISKEY PAYS FOR HIS TEAM

White Sox Owner Has Something Like $200,000 Invested in Players For This Year's Team

DIFFERS FROM CONNIE MACK

He Buys The Finished Product
While Mack Believes in Developing Young Players

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Charlie Comiskey's idea for acquiring a real ball team is diametrically opposite to the idea concealed in the dome of Cornelius McGillicuddy.

Mack gets the raw material and develops it. Comiskey buys it finished and delivered. The White Sox owner has spent close to $200,000 for the finished product in the past few years. His most recent purchase of Eddie Murphy for a sum somewhere near $10,000 calls to mind some of the real money he has handed over to the finishers for ball players.

For Eddie Collins $50,000; for Ray Schalk $12,500; for the late lamented Larry Chapell $18,500; for Russell Blackburne $11,000; for Ping Bodie $8,000; for Bobbie Roth $8,000 and for Rollie Zeider, bunion and all $8,000.

This is an incomplete list. If the whole truth were known the amount probably would total more than $200,000. And if it were not for the some up-to-the-present-minute unexplained vagary on the part of Connie Mack we could add $60,000 to Comiskey's player expense account. That's what Comiskey offered Mack for Old-Slam 'em-Out-Baker.

SUNDAY'S GAME CALLED OFF

Wet Grounds Caused Postponement
of Connersville Contest.

The game scheduled for yesterday between the Rushers and Connersville was called off because of the wet condition of the grounds. The rain of Saturday night completely soaked the diamond and the club directors did not believe it would be dry enough to play on by Sunday afternoon. Fans in both cities were greatly disappointed as one of the best games of the season was promised. The teams will likely get together next Sunday in Connersville.

76 IN THE WATER SUNDAY

One of the largest crowds of the season sought the Green bathing beach Sunday afternoon. The beach is located south of the dam near the Green summer home and has been proving a popular place these hot summer days. Sunday afternoon there were seventy-six persons in the water at one time and fully this number on the bank watching the bathers enjoy the sport.

The depth of the water at the swimming place varies from a few feet to over fifteen feet and makes an ideal swimming pool. The river at this point was dragged this spring and on the east side there is a high bank affording an excellent place to dive. A local taxicab concern was hauling people to and from the beach at ten cents a throw.

W. F. OGBORN SUCCUMBS

Former Local Shoe Maker Dies at Cambridge City Monday.

City Treasurer J. P. Stech Monday received word by telephone of the death of W. F. Ogborn, formerly of this city, at his home in Cambridge City. He was sixty years old and was well known in this city where he conducted a shoe shop for years. He was shoe repairer in the shoe store where the Rushville National bank now stands for a long time. "Billie" Ogborn, as he was familiarly called by his friends, has been sick several months and his demise was expected. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen lodge for nineteen years and carried an insurance policy in the lodge for $2,000. His widow survives him. The funeral will be held at Cambridge City Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

WHITTON FINED.

Mistakes Have Been Seen And Great Britain Will Enter Second Year
Very Strong

London, July 2 (By Mail)—Much may happen between this date (July 2) and the anniversary of the war but taking things as they are the Allies have every reason for congratulations.

No one can deny that when the war broke out Germany had a great numerical superiority of men actually available, and a huge preponderance of howitzers, high explosive shells, machine guns and other necessities of modern warfare. A power which knows that war will break out at a certain date has that certain advantage over powers which only fear that it may come sooner or later. Yet by some miracle the Germans were stopped after a month of great success, and from that balance has gradually come more level.

This would have occurred sooner had it not been that Great Britain did not get her slow ponderous strength to bear at once. But under the stimulus of foolish Zeppelin attacks and bombardments of watering places, with the murder of fishermen and merchant sailors, there has come a temper in this country which has never been seen before and which enables us now to bend our whole energy to the task without recourse to those methods of compulsion which are hateful to our conceptions of freedom. The war would never have been taken so seriously by our easy-going people had it not been for the mistakes of our enemy in indulging in these senseless brutalities which have frightened every one but which have exasperated every one, so that any government which suggested a compromise would not live for a day. The scandalous treatment of our prisoners (not greatly ameliorated) has helped to the same end.

The result is that Great Britain will enter the second year of the war greatly strengthened in every way, with her navy unimpaired, her army ten times larger, and her people united in fighting to an absolute finish, cost what it may. That cost will be heavy in lives and money no doubt, but the end is as sure as tomorrow's sunrise.

from Plato down to the present time and told of the different ideals of education. Dr. Ellis stated that at the start of the nineteenth century individualism was the ideal of education. He said at the start of the twentieth century this changed to the social ideal in that the individual was not a part of the state alone but of the nation as well. He said a too radical education along the social line was likely to run into socialism and declared that the true ideal of education was a combination of the social and individualism.

Do No Want Blackmail Charges Investigated But Prosecutor is Going Ahead Anyway

CHURCH MEMBERS INVOLVED

Old Badger Game With Variations Was Worked And Man And Wife Are Held in Jail

(By United Press.)

Tipton, Ind., Aug. 2.—Prominent citizens of Tipton, many of whom are said to be church members, are not urging Acting Prosecutor Mount to investigate further the charges of black mail against Gilbert Robinson. But Mount, despite this, is going right ahead with an investigation that may disclose some of the choicest scandal brought forth in Tipton county.

The old Badger game, worked with variations for centuries always finds the male sex an easy victim, is said by Mount to have been the means by which Mr. and Mrs. Robinson blackmailed many Tipton men.

The alleged scheme was unearthed following the killing of Walter Varner by Mrs. Robinson. Mrs. Robinson shot Varner, she said, when he tried to break into her house.

Mount's theory, which he says the evidence substantiates, is that Mrs. Robinson, by her wiles induced men to visit her. At an opportune moment Varner would surprise Mrs. Robinson and her companion, and would then notify the woman's husband. Robinson, all anger, would then demand money on the threat of a full exposure that would ruin the victim's home.

Mount's theory was that Varner was killed when he refused longer to be the go-between. Robinson and his wife are held in jail.

BRITISH STAND PAT IN NEW NOTE

Insists it Has Proof American Shipments to Holland Were Really For Germany.

REJECTS OUR CONTENTIONS

Even Refuse to Recognize American Rights to Reserve Certain Complaints For Future.

BY CHARLES P. STEWART.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, August 2.—In its controversy with the United States, concerning the English order in council the London foreign office stands absolutely pat.

The supplement to the recent British note arrived today. With it came a separate note concerning the case of the steamship Natchez, which, with a cargo form a neutral European port, was detained by the British on its way to the United States on the ground that really its cargo was of German origin.

The two notes and the supplement will not be made public until Wednesday, but they were found to contain the following things:

Every American contention is rejected as untenable.

The British refused even to recognize the American right to reserve certain American complaints for a future negotiation.

All hopes that there might be a modification of the British order in council were upset.

From the commerce's department's report on "foreign trade balance" a page was taken to support the British contention that American foreign business was not affected. The London foreign office insisted it has proof that many American shipments to Scandinavia and Holland were designed ultimately for Germany. The British still claim the right to hold up shipments from these neutrals in case they suspect Germany was the starting place.

Germany's note concerning the Frye incident was also received but was deemed far less important than the British series.

GERMANY IS UNDECIDED

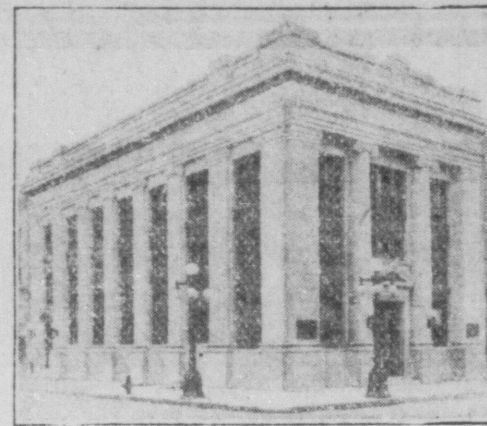

Not Determined Whether American Note Shall be Answered.

Berlin, (By Wireless to Sayville,) August 2.—"Contrary to published reports the imperial government has not yet decided whether the American note shall be answered," said a semi-official statement issued today.

"The government is awaiting the text of the coming American note to England."

A plea for "Greater Americanism," the topic of his address, was made by Dr. James Montgomery Sunday afternoon at the chautauqua. He referred often to the European war and declared that today the nations of the world were looking to America. Dr. Montgomery pleaded for the eradication of the hyphen in all foreign-born Americans.

The crowd Sunday was the largest that has ever been seen in the Coliseum and on the grounds, at the opening day of the chautauqua. Practically every available seat was taken at the afternoon session and at night many extra seats were placed in the auditorium, but still many persons were compelled to stand.

The Hruby Bohemian orchestra was instantly popular and Gay Zelnola MacLauren, the dramatic reader, held the interest of a large audience until ten o'clock last night with her reading of "The Sign of the Cross." The play was in keeping with the spirit of the day and won the hearty approval of chautauqua patrons.

Dr. Montgomery asserted that at the front door of every nation stands a great personality. He recalled the leading men in all countries and referred to George Washington as the greatest personality in American history.

"No nation," he said, "is comparable to ours in its origin. We came into the family of nations an example to self government and self restraint. At this momentous hour Europe, stained by the blood of dying people, is looking toward us. What is America? We need a baptism of the American spirit."

"One of the great sources of our national greatness is the infusion of foreign blood. One of the great weaknesses of some of the nations at war is the fact that only two per cent. of their blood is foreign."

"We do not want hyphenated Americans today. We are not German-Americans, French Americans, Swiss-Americans, Russian-Americans or even Irish-Americans, but we are all Americans. A spirit of

Whether it be luncheon or dinner, a number of local Democrats and Republicans will be invited to be guests of Mr. Watson, along with the speaker.

FINE IS NOT TO EXCEED $25

The new muffler ordinance which prohibits the open exhaust on all automobiles and motorcycles will be in effect Wednesday and the police department is preparing to enforce it. The ordinance was recently passed by the city council after it was decided that the open muffler was a nuisance.

The ordinance provides that violations are punishable upon conviction with a fine not to exceed $25. Machines running with the mufflers open have been so numerous here that the police expect difficulty at first in enforcing the law, but expect to have it obeyed even if a few arrests are necessary to bring about the desired result, they say.

JOHN BELL IS HELD ON "TIGER" CHARGE

Trial is Set For Tuesday After he
Pays Fine of Dollar and Costs
For Intoxication.

BACK FROM CONNERSVILLE

Two charges, one of public intoxication and the other for operating a "blind tiger" were filed against John (Hot Stuff) Bell Monday afternoon in police court. He pleaded guilty to the intoxication charge and was fined one dollar and costs, but pleaded not guilty to the "tiger" charge. The trial was set for Tuesday afternoon.

Bell was arrested last Saturday night near the hitch rack by Chief Rosencrance. He had a small basket on his arm in which were three half-pint bottles, one pint bottle of whiskey and one quart of beer. Bell maintains that he went to Connerville and brought the "booze" here for certain parties and that he was not selling it. He stated that the men gave him the money for the liquor before he left Rushville to go to Connerville.

ORGANIZATION IS BY COUNTIES

By-Laws of Hoosier Highway Association Formed at Wabash
Are Received Here.

NEXT MEETING AT ANDERSON

Effort Will be Made to Have Carl G.
Fisher And Secretary Dixie
Commission There

By-laws of the Hoosier Dixie Highway association, which have been received by the Rush County Chamber of Commerce here, provide for the formation of county organizations in all counties through which the proposed Hoosier Dixie highway connecting the Dixie Highway at Cincinnati with the Lincoln Highway at Elkhart shall pass.

The organization was finally formed at a meeting in Wabash Wednesday of last week and another meeting to perfect details of the organization will be held at Anderson Wednesday afternoon of next week at one o'clock. Several urgent letters have been received by the Chamber of Commerce here calling on Rush county to form a county organization and be represented at the meeting in Anderson. It is not yet determined what will be done.

The by-laws provide that "the purpose of this organization shall be to assist in promoting and building or improving and keeping serviceable a permanent highway connecting the Lincoln Highway at Elkhart to the Dixie Highway at Cincinnati through the following county seats: Elkhart, Goshen, Warsaw, Marion, Anderson, Rushville Greensburg and to endeavor to bring about a general plan of permanent highway building, and to have this route from the Ohio river to the north through the counties named uniformly marked and logged in all overland travel guides."

The by-laws further shall have headquarters at Marion, Ind., and that there shall be a local organization in each county, through which this highway passes, under regulations to be provided by the board of governors. The officers shall consist of a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary-treasurer.

It will be seen that some amendments should be added to the by-laws. This is the purposes of the meeting to be held at Anderson next week.

"Members of this organization shall consist of citizens residing in the county where they reside," say the by-laws, and the membership fee shall be one dollar per annum, to be divided between the local and general organization as the Board of Governors shall determine; said money to be used in promoting the efforts of this association."

Other paragraphs of the by-laws are of little interest, as they merely prescribe form for meetings and the details of general organization.

Joseph E. Hennings, of Anderson promised at the Wabash meeting that he would make an effort to have Secretary Galbraith, of the Dixie Highway Commission, of Cincinnati, Ohio, here for the meeting and also make an effort to have Carl G. Fisher, of Indianapolis, one of the two Indiana men on the commission, present at the meeting.

According to the plans of the association, roads between the various cities along the route will improve highways from one county to another and it is not the question of building a new road. According to figures that have been obtained the proposed route from Chicago to Cincinnati is but 265 miles, which is about forty-five miles shorter than

County Teachers to Work For
Its Extermination

THE FIRST SESSION MONDAY

Would be Doing Her Duty, She Says,
if She Caused Teacher Who
Smokes to Lose Position

The annual session of the Rush County Teachers' Institute opened Monday morning in the auditorium of the Graham Annex with an enrollment of ninety. This number is expected to be increased before the week is over and the attendance record was considered excellent for the opening session. The Rev. D. Ira Lambert, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, led the devotional services, and the teachers heard two excellent addresses by Dr. Charles C. Ellis and Dr. Carolyn Geisel.

Both Dr. Geisel and Dr. Ellis are doing the institute work in connection with the Rush County chautauqua. The series of lectures by Dr. Geisel will deal with domestic science and the relation of health to good school work.

This morning Dr. Geisel arraigned the cigarette habit and urged the teachers of Rush county to keep tobacco in all forms away from the school grounds and out of the hands of their pupils. She pointed out how the cigarette and tobacco dulled the brain and thickened the memory even of the strongest children physically.

Right living, she declared, is necessary from the teachers as well as the children, if the teachers are to give the children their best efforts and the children to take advantage of these efforts. "Keep the cigarette off the school campus," said Dr. Geisel. "You might just as well not try to impress learning on a child if you do not keep the cigarette off the campus."

She urged the teachers to work for the extermination of the cigarette. The teacher, who smokes, was also criticized by Dr. Geisel. She declared that she would be doing her duty to the community, if she would go before the state board of education and cause any teacher here to lose his position because he smoked. "If I find, during my stay here any of you teachers who smoke," declared Dr. Geisel, "I am going to the state of Indiana and see that you lose your job. If you are going to be a school teacher, be a teacher in fact and not in name. The children copy after you and follow in your footsteps and it is your duty not to smoke."

She stated that during the week she hoped to be able to send the teachers back to their school work fired with the idea to keep the brain of the child clear. Dr. Geisel stated that only two out of every hundred students at Leland Stanford University, who smoke during their Freshman year, ever graduate. She pointed out that smoking affected the work of students in higher schools of learning less than those of Rush county and that the problem was a great one.

"As a man thinketh, so he is," said Dr. Geisel, "and as educators we mark the memory tablets of the children. To do this successfully smoking must not be allowed. The mental and physical body go hand in hand, but the child with a clear brain is generally the healthier."

Dr. Ellis spoke on the subject, "The Meaning of Education." He pointed out the leading educators

REAR GUARD MAKES WONDERFUL FIGHT

Russian Forces Along Narew Determinedly Holding up Germans
While Army Evacuates.

RETIREMENT EASTWARD IS ON

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, August 2.—The Russian armies falling back from Warsaw are fighting one of the most magnificent rear guard actions the world has ever seen. All forces standing along the Narew and west of the Polish capital are determinedly holding up the Germans while the main body of Slavs continue the retirement eastward.

So effective is the Russian defense just outside the gates of the city that military men declare today that Warsaw could never have been won by direct assault. The great Austro-German siege guns and the massed forces of the enemy could not have battered their way into the capital, they held, and the capture of Warsaw was only made possible by the progress of the Austro-Germans along the Lublin-Chelm line.

DISTRIBUTION OF FUND IS DELAYED

Automobile Registration Money Will
Not Arrive Until Gravel Road
Mileage is Revised.

RUSH COUNTY WILL GET MORE

The distribution of the money received by the state from the registration of automobiles and motor vehicles in the office of the secretary of state will be delayed slightly this year owing to the necessity of revising the number of miles of free gravel roads in each county. The fund accumulated from the registration of automobiles is divided among the counties as follows: one-third shall be divided equally among the counties; one-third shall be divided among the counties in proportion which the number of miles of free gravel roads in the county bears to the whole number of such roads in the state; one third shall be divided among the counties on the basis of the amount received from the counties from such registration tax.

Rush county will receive more money this year than last because in the revised mileage sent to the secretary's office by J. C. King, highway superintendent, the total number of miles is placed at 280. This is twenty more than last year and will mean an increase to the free gravel road fund of the county.

Proposes Investigation of Lakes
Inspection Service.

BY A BOARD OF INSPECTORS

He is Threatened With Murder in Unsigned Letters as Result of Eastland Disaster.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, August 2.—The entire federal steamship inspection service will be investigated by Secretary Redfield of the Commerce department if formal charges are made against it. Immediate investigation of the inspection service on the Great Lakes will be made by a board of five supervising inspectors.

This was the secretary's reply today of critics of his policy in regard to the Eastland disaster.

The great Lakes investigating board will be made up of five men who will be elected by Supervisor General Uhler from a list of supervising inspectors announced by Redfield. Two of the inspectors in Redfield's list have been mentioned in testimony concerning the Eastland's previous relations with the federal inspectors.

The appointment of a representative commission by the president to investigate the inspection service was suggested by Redfield.

He said that he favored also the creation by congress of a court of appeal before which decision of federal inspectors as to the passenger capacity of a vessel could be taken by citizens disagreeing with the same.

Threats of murder were made against Secretary of Redfield today in unsigned letters received by him. One letter apparently written by a woman said:

"If you don't get out of Chicago we'll push you in the river like you pushed the people off the Eastland in."

"MURDER."

Another read: "If you don't behave you'd better get out of Chicago."

MARTIN REUNION.

The reunion of the Martin family, consisting of seven brothers, and their families reside in Indiana, Illinois and Montana will be held at the home of R. H. Martin on the Weeks farm, south of the city, Aug. 5 to Aug. 12. Three of the brothers are ministers; one a lawyer; one a professor and two are farmers. They will be the guests of the Mens' Bible class of the First Baptist church on Tuesday, Aug. 10.

There will be a meeting of the Modern Woodmen at their hall tonight, at 7 o'clock, to arrange for the funeral of W. F. Ogborn, of Cambridge City, Ind. The members are urged to be present.

Can? or "Canned?"

"He can who thinks he can"
"He's canned who thinks he can't."

This quotation from the Insurance and Investment News hits the advertising nail on the head. The man who thinks he can, finds the way and sells the goods.

If he has no market he makes one.

He advertises in the daily papers, and lets people know HE CAN.

He does not sit and worry about dull times.

this sort needs to get abroad in this land."

Dr. Montgomery defined Americanism. He said it was not only physical, but commercial and military—somewhat. He said the United States is the greatest land under the sun and that appreciation of its physical aspects was lacking. He called attention to its size by recalling that Japan could be placed in the state of Montana and that there would still be room for a border seven miles wide clear around it.

Dr. Montgomery asserted that we must have a commercial basis for a higher civilization. He asserted that the United States had been accused of commercialism and that charge was repeated when this country took over the Philippines. But he pointed to the sacrifices of men and money the United States had made to improve the civilization of those islands and to prepare the people for ruling themselves.

Dr. Montgomery asserted Americanism is military, but qualified that statement by using the word "somewhat." He recalled that seventy-one cents out of every dollar of taxes is for war past, present and future.

"Let us have peace," was the earnest plea. The speaker said that some had complained of conditions in Mexico, but he cited that fact that out of the fifteen million inhabitants here, only fifty thousand are pure Mexicans.

Dr. Montgomery did not deny that the martial spirit had done great things for this nation and that it had contributed much to Americanism.

"We have no right to encourage foreign commerce unless we protect it," was one opinion he made.

"In this hour," he said, "we are not only Americans, but we are patriots." The higher Americanism stands for man, the individual, rather than the institution. When the institution stands against the time-honored rights of man, the institution should come down.

"It also stands for the primary tenet that the people have a right to

In the third place, he declared higher Americanism stands for international peace. Every morning as one reads the newspapers, he said, one is accustomed to ask: "What next? Will the sparks be falling on us?"

"For twenty years," he added, "I have been preaching the brotherhood of men. Now millions of men are at each other's throats. The nations of Europe are headed toward Jericho. Let Columbia be the good Samaritan."

"May our mission be, the world is our country and to do good is our religion."

The Hruby Bohemian orchestra proved its versatility by its Sunday programs. The organization did not have to rely on orchestra numbers, but had many arrangements of instrumental solos, duets, trios and quartets. A solo on a one-stringed instrument in the afternoon won a long encore and a cornet trio was also especially deserving of commendation.

It is doubtful if patriotism was ever roused to a higher pitch in Rushville by music than that last night. When the orchestra played an arrangement of patriotic airs, twice the people rose to their feet and applauded.

"Is it any wonder men will fight to music like that?" exclaimed a woman in the audience, and that about expressed the sentiment of the audience.

Dr. D. H. Dean, the president of the chautauqua, made the opening address, welcoming the people to the assembly. Dr. D. Ira Lambert, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the devotional exercises.

Chautauqua Notes

There was less confusion for the size of the crowd at the opening day of the chautauqua of 1915 than ever before. It was the cause for general comment.

Chautauqua patrons are sure they are going to be well pleased with the platform manager, Dr. C. C. Ellis. He moves the programs off with dispatch and precision. Persons who go on time expect the program to be started on time, and those who are late can expect nothing but to miss a part.

The "Rubies" received one of the most generous receptions ever accorded a musical organization opening the chautauqua here. Their very first offering proved them exceptional and the crowd both afternoon and night was loathe to see them leave the platform.

Platform Manager Ellis made it plain Sunday night that the chautauqua management would appreciate it if parents would keep their children by their side during programs and thus lessen the chances for noise.

Although it amounts to very little, chautauqua patrons are urged to remember that the Royal Male Welsh Singers and Hellen Keller have changed places on the Tuesday evening program. The Welshmen will appear at 7:30 and Hellen Keller at 8:45. This will give everyone ample time to arrive in time to hear Miss Keller. The chief thing to remember is that both of these wonderful attractions are Tuesday night.

The "Rubies" showed themselves Sunday to be a wonderfully versatile family. There are eight of them, six young men and two girls—all brothers and sisters. The eldest introduced the family Sunday afternoon and it seemed like a homecoming.

The "quiet zone" is effective at the chautauqua this year. It was given a trial last year and was found to be effective. A fence was erected around the Coliseum about twenty feet from each side. An order of the management compels that there be no loud talking or other noise inside that fence while programs are in progress.

The committee in charge prepared the Coliseum and grounds in good style for this year's chautauqua. The interior of the building was scrubbed and Sunday it looked "spice and span" in its best "bib and tucker." The stage was very tastefully decorated. Large flags have been placed on top of the electric light poles on the grounds and a large one floats from the pole on top of the Coliseum.

The chautauqua grounds are well policed this year. There are enough men to preserve order and prevent confusion and unnecessary noises.

Dr. James S. Montgomery, whose eldest brother, Edwin, who is a descendant of Shelbyville, was born here when his father was pastor of the M. E. church in the days when it stood at the corner of Julian and Third streets, said Sunday afternoon there were two or more such radiant spots on the map than Rushville and Shelbyville, but that he would have to place Shelbyville first because it was there that he was born.

Dr. Ellis, the platform manager, will be a very busy man this week. Besides his arduous duties at the helm of the chautauqua, he will lecture once or twice every morning during the week at the teachers' institute and a few times in the afternoon at the chautauqua. He lectured Monday afternoon at 2:45 on the topic, "Day Dreams and Hard Knocks."

Dr. D. H. Dean, in his capacity as president of the Rush county chautauqua welcomed the first audience Sunday afternoon. He said great things were hoped for this year's assembly. Dr. Dean, being a physician, said there wasn't any question but that the chautauqua salute was unsanitary under certain conditions. Laughingly, he urged that chautauqua patrons bring their clean handkerchiefs and leave their "old rags" at home.

Dr. Ellis said he was happy in the recollection of the two times he had been here previously, that he would like to congratulate the people of the county on the unusually fine program for this year. Looks like the program committee, which made the program what it is and spent a lot of time at it, has some credit coming, too.

The oldest member of the Hruby Bohemian orchestra explained that in America they pronounce their name "Ruhby" because no one here found it possible to sound the "H" and "R" together. He said that they were all Bohemians, although he was the only one born in Europe.

"We have been somewhat limited today because it is Sunday," he added. "But our name, in a literal translation, means rough and we promise to let loose a little tomorrow (Monday) and give you some rough stuff and novelty numbers."

Monday night will be the last chance to hear the "Rubies."

The platform manager said he would endeavor to start all programs on time. Dr. Ellis, in making the opening announcements Sunday afternoon, took due notice of the fact that the first few rows were occupied by little folks. He said that management was glad to have them there, but that they were expected to be still for some time they might grow up and be on the platform in the role of an entertainer.

AUTOS FOR MAIL SERVICE

Uncle Sam is Preparing to do Away With Old Dobin

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 2.—The time is rapidly approaching when the farmer will receive his mail via "jitney." Uncle Sam today placed in operation 105 autos for rural mail delivery in various parts of the United States, but not in Indiana.

However, Tippecanoe county already is trying out auto delivery in the country. The plan is to double the length of the routes, making them 50 miles instead of 25, thus decreasing the number of carriers and giving those still employed more pay.

"I-Want-U" is coming to town. Watch this paper for announcement of arrival.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course, every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MORBID CROWD AT BECKER'S FUNERAL

Ten Thousand Jam About Home Monday and Police Have to Beat Them Back With Sticks.

MANY FLORAL OFFERINGS

New York, August 2.—Ten thousand and morbid curiosity seekers crowding around the home of Charles Becker, electrocuted at Sing Sing, delayed the start of the Becker funeral procession today until mounted policemen beat them back with their sticks. Several scuffles and fist fights occurred near the hearse. Mrs. Becker made her way with difficulty to her carriage.

Floral decorations reflected the feeling of the Becker family and friends. "Sacrificed to politics," read one floral piece in letters four inches high. "To the Martyr With Sincere Sympathies," said another. At the cemetery the undertakers were compelled to remove the former before they could get in the gate.

WAR HAS HELPED LEAD COUNTRY

Town of Fredericktown, Mo., Has Been Rejuvenated Because of Increased Business

ALL MINES ARE NOW WORKING

Fredericktown, Mo., August 3.—While the European war, in the words of one of the current crop of war ballads, is "Making widows out of mothers" and "Butchers out of brothers," in a way that rhymes conveniently, it is doing things for Fredericktown in the way of prosperity that Fredericktown never before dared dream could be done. Fredericktown is just one of the hundreds of "lead towns" in Missouri and its case is typical.

Before war was declared Fredericktown was voted a good town to avoid. Lead was dropping like "lead" in all markets. By the ton the product sold for less than $60. There was no big demand and there was a whole lot of the mineral already brought to the surface waiting to be used. Stores closed up, boarding houses reduced their demands on the markets and gradually were closed, patches of vacant houses appeared and gradually enlarged until they merged. Fredericktown was so nearly dead that nearby towns facetiously inquired of the coroner when he was going to hold the inquest.

Then it happened. The soldiers used up all the bullets they had and there was demand for Fredericktown product. Laborers flocked back to the city. The shutters were removed from store and boarding house, windows. Machinery began to move again, creaking at first and then developing a business-like industrious hum. Lead jumped from less than $60 a ton to $90 in leaps of from two dollars to five dollars and the men underground produced the death-dealing metal for shipment to Europe.

Now Fredericktown is thinking of sending to some big city for a civic expert to develop the beauty of the city. The war has boomed the lead country.

Beautifying Property

Would you increase the value of your town property if you could?

It is easy to do and worth doing.

Get busy on it; clean it up; repair and paint up; grade your grounds, if they need it; keep your walks in good condition and add new ones where required; cut the weeds and keep them down, both on and adjacent to your property; don't throw trash in the street or the backyard; keep up your fences, if you have them; grow plenty of flowers and neat shrubbery, and make it a place of Beauty.

Then go around and brag like the dickens to your neighbor about YOUR place, and keep on bragging until you make him jealous of its beauties and he goes to work and does the same with his.

Then let him on the secret and start him out to rubbing it into his neighbors, and see that he keeps it up until they, too, become tired of the contrast and bragging and get busy on their own property with a determination to outdo the rest of you.

And in time the whole city will become jealous of the property of each other and every fellow will be whooping it up to see who can have the most attractive place.

Then the traveling public will come along and take notice, and go away and talk of the beauties of our town and the thriftiness of our people, and other people will want to come and live in such a fine community.

And isn't it easy to see that your property then will be worth nearly double what it is today?

JITNEY OWNERS TO

Gary First City in State to Require

Them to Give Indemnity Bonds, Ordinance Ready

THRIVING IN THAT CITY

(By United Press.)

Gary, Ind., Aug. 2.—Gary expects to be the first city in Indiana to require jitney bus owners to give indemnity bonds. The city's legal department has prepared an ordinance to be voted on at the next meeting of the city council.

A thorough discussion of the matter followed the appearance of Chief Heintz before the council. Heintz is out gunning for the jitneys. He called every one of the drivers into his office and laid down strict rules for them to follow under pain of arrest.

But the jitneys are thriving nevertheless. Forty-four lines are being operated, according to the latest count. That represented an increase of nine lines in two days.

Meanwhile, the traction company is in the courts, and an application may be made for a receiver.

REDUCED RATES

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 2.—There was a rush of automobile owners at had at a reduced rate. Today and hereafter the owner of new automobiles will pay a gradually reducing rate for licenses.

TO HOLD AN ALL DAY LOVE FEAST

Columbia Club Plans State-Wide Republican Gathering For State Fair Grounds

TAKES PLACE NEXT MONTH

Names of Speakers And Exact Date
Will be Announced in The Next Few Days

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 2.—One of the really big political events of the year in Indiana will be the meeting to be held by the Columbia Club at the State Fair Grounds in September.

The affair will be in the nature of an all day love feast and barbecue and will be held in honor of the 1,- 800 new members of the Club who have joined the organization since special campaign for new members was launched in April. Members of the Club, their families and friends will be invited; and the affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable political events held in this state recently.

Speakers of national repute will be secured for the occasion and in addition, a large number of persons prominent in political circles in the state will deliver short addresses.
All the Republican candidates for Governor, United States Senator and the several state offices are expected to be present and will be given an opportunity to be heard.

The Columbia Club during the last three months, has enjoyed a phenomenal growth, the membership list having been increased nearly threefold during that time. The Club has tendered its services to the Republican State committee in the coming campaign; and thus offer has been accepted by that organization.
It is believed that the Club, with its large membership extending into practically every county in the state will be a potential factor in assisting the regular state, district and county organizations during the coming campaign.

The plan to hold a great Republican meeting at the State Fair grounds in September is receiving the enthusiastic support of party leaders from all over the state; and it is expected that Republicans all over Indiana will bring their families and participate in the festivities of the day. Special committees have been appointed to work out the details of the meeting. The service of a professional chef, one who is an adept in the art, has been secured;
and choicest viands in great abundance will be served in the good, old Hoosier style.

The names of speakers, the exact date on which the meeting will be held, and other matters of detail will be announced within the next few days. In the meantime the members of the Club throughout the state,
many of whom have already expressed themselves in the most sanguine terms concerning the meeting, will look forward with pleasure to the occasion as an opportunity to become acquainted with each other and to get in close touch with the real spirit of the 1916 campaign.

SAYS PROPERTY
PLACED TOO LOW

Gary Man Creates Furore by Saying Assessments in State Are 20
Per Cent of Value

APPEARED BEFORE TAX BOARD

Occured During Hearing to Raise Assessment of Indiana Steel Company of That Place

BY DANIEL L. BEEBE

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Indianapolis, Aug. 2.—That twenty percent is the general assessment on property in Indiana, take it the state over, was assertion Henry Mc-Cracken, vice president of the Gary Commercial Club, made before the State Tax commission.

And by that statement McCracken brought down upon himself a torrent of questioning and objections that made him seek the table and prespire freely.

The members of the state tax commission objected to the assertion that Indiana property, generally speaking, is assessed on the basis of twenty per cent and asked Mc-Cracken to cite instances. Mc-Cracken named the Studebaker plant in South Bend, the Bowser pump plant in Fort Wayne and the Inland Steel company in Lake county. He said the pump company probably was assessed at less than twenty percent.

The ears of John M. McFadden in Gary must have burned during the hearing. He is the assessor of Calumet township which includes Gary.
McCracken declared that McFadden had told him he made his assessment of the Indiana Steel company ($5,- 646,485) and of other Gary property on a twenty percent basis and that various trips McFadden had taken over the state had convinced him that the average assessment in Indiana was on a twenty percent basis.

At this, state auditor Crittenberger demanded to know more details of McFadden's statement, saying that McFadden had told him he had heard this generally talked at state meetings of the assessors. Other assessors in the room were asked whether they had heard anything of the kind talked about at state meetings, and replied they had not.

The board cited the case of one lot on Gary's main street which was assessed at $3,000. McCracken admitted that this lot probably was worth $12,500, and admitted hearing a rumor that this lot and another beside it, both improved, had sold for $76,000.

The "20-percent discussion" came up during the hearing of the appeal for a higher assessment of the Indiana Steel company, which, it was claimed, was assessed at 20 per cent of its true value.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The following prices f.o.b. Detroit, effective Aug. 2, 1915:

| | |
|------------------|----------|
| Ford Runabout | $390.00 |
| Ford Touring Car | 440.00 |
| Ford Town Car | 640.00 |

No speedometer included in this year's equipment, otherwise cars fully equipped.

There can be no assurance given against an advance in these prices at any time. We guarantee, however, that there will be no reduction in these prices prior to Aug. 1, 1916.

Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914, we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between August 1, 1914, and August 1, 1915, we would share profits with the retail purchasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-15 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally, makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date.

We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September and October, 1915.

COMISKEY PAYS FOR HIS TEAM

White Sox Owner Has Something Like $200,000 Invested in Players For This Year's Team.

DIFFERS FROM CONNIE MACK

He Buys The Finished Product While Mack Believes in Developing Young Players

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Charlie Comiskey's idea for acquiring a real ball team is diametrically opposite to the idea conceived in the dome of Cornelius McGillicuddy.

Mack gets the raw material and develops it. Comiskey buys it finished and delivered. The White Sox owner has spent close to $200,000 for the finished product in the past few years. His most recent purchase of Eddie Murphy for a sum somewhere near $10,000 calls to mind some of the real money he has handed over to the finishers for ball players.

For Eddie Collins $50,000; for Ray Schalk $12,500; for the late lamented Larry Chapell $18,500; for Russell Blackburne $11,000; for Ping Bodie $8,000; for Bobbie Roth $8,000 and for Rollie Zeider, bunion and all $8,000.

This is an incomplete list. If the whole truth were known the amount probably would total more than $200,000. And if it were not for the some up-to-the-present-minute unexplained vagary on the part of Connie Mack we could add $60,000 to Comiskey's player expense account. That's what Comiskey offered Mack for Old-Slam 'em-Out-Baker.

SUNDAY'S GAME CALLED OFF

Wet Grounds Caused Postponement of Connersville Contest.

The game scheduled for yesterday between the Rushers and Connersville was called off because of the wet condition of the grounds. The rain of Saturday night completely soaked the diamond and the club directors did not believe it would be dry enough to play on by Sunday afternoon. Fans in both cities were greatly disappointed as one of the best games of the season was promised. The teams will likely get together next Sunday in Connersville.

GREEN BATHING BEACH POPULAR

Place in Flatrock Near Summer Cottage is Gathering Place for Swimmers These Hot Days.

76 IN THE WATER SUNDAY

One of the largest crowds of the season sought the Green bathing beach Sunday afternoon. The beach is located south of the dam near the Green summer home and has been proving a popular place these hot summer days. Sunday afternoon there were seventy-six persons in the water at one time and fully this number on the bank watching the bathers enjoy the sport.

The depth of the water at the swimming place varies from a few feet to over fifteen feet and makes an ideal swimming pool. The river at this point was dragged this spring and on the east side there is a high bank affording an excellent place to dive. A local taxicab concern was hauling people to and from the beach at ten cents a throw.

"Billie" Ogborn, as he was familiarly called by his friends, has been sick several months and his demise was expected. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen lodge for nineteen years and carried an insurance policy in the lodge for $2,000. His widow survives him. The funeral will be held at Cambridge City Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

Sir A-Conan Doyle Says Early Advantage Favored Germany Because They Expected War

RESULT IS NOT IN DOUBT

Mistakes Have Been Seen And Great

Britain Will Enter Second Year Very Strong

BY SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE
Creator of "Sherlock Holmes," author of "The Lost World," "The Poison Belt," Etc.
(Written Especially for the U. P.)
Copyright, 1915, by United Press, Copyright in Great Britain.

London, July 2 (By Mail).—Much may happen between this date (July 2) and the anniversary of the war but taking things as they are the Allies have every reason for congratulations.

No one can deny that when the war broke out Germany had a great numerical superiority of men actually available, and a huge preponderance of howitzers, high explosive shells, machine guns and other necessities of modern warfare. A power which knows that war will break out at a certain date has that certain advantage over powers which only fear that it may come sooner or later. Yet by some miracle the Germans were stopped after a month of great success, and from that balance has gradually come more level.

This would have occurred sooner had it not been that Great Britain did not get her slow ponderous strength to bear at once. But under the stimulus of foolish Zeppelin attacks and bombardments of watering places; with the murder of fishermen and merchant sailors, there has come a temper in this country which has never been seen before and which enables us now to bend our whole energy to the task without recourse to those methods of compulsion which are hateful to our conceptions of freedom. The war would never have been taken so seriously by our easy-going people had it not been for the mistakes of our enemy in indulging in these senseless brutalities which have frightened no one but which have exasperated every one, so that any government which suggested a compromise would not live for a day. The scandalous treatment of our prisoners (not greatly ameliorated) has helped to the same end.

The result is that Great Britain will enter the second year of the war greatly strengthened in every way, with her navy unimpaired, her army ten times larger, and her people united in fighting to an absolute finish, cost what it may. That cost will be heavy in lives and money no doubt, but the end is as sure as tomorrow's sunrise.

from Plato down to the present time and told of the different ideals of education. Dr. Ellis stated that at the start of the nineteenth century individualism was the ideal of education. He said at the start of the twentieth century this changed to the social ideal in that the individual was not a part of the state alone but of the nation as well. He said a too radical education along the social line was likely to run into socialism and declared that the true ideal of education was a combination of the social and individualism.

Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and were so highly recommended that I got a supply at Johnson & Co's Drug Store. They proved to be the best kidney medicine I had ever tried and in a short time, my kidneys were normal."

BRITISH STAND PAT IN NEW NOTE

Insists it Has Proof American Shipments to Holland Were Really For Germany.

REJECTS OUR CONTENTIONS

Even Refuse to Recognize American Rights to Reserve Certain Complaints For Future.

BY CHARLES P. STEWART.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, August 2.—In its controversy with the United States, concerning the English order in council the London foreign office stands absolutely pat.

The supplement to the recent British note arrived today. With it came a separate note concerning the case of the steamship Natchez, which, with a cargo from a neutral European port, was detained by the British on its way to the United States on the ground that really its cargo was of German origin.

The two notes and the supplement will not be made public until Wednesday, but they were found to contain the following things:

Every American contention is rejected as untenable.

The British refused even to recognize the American right to reserve certain American complaints for a future negotiation.

All hopes that there might be a modification of the British order in council were upset.

From the commerce department's report on "foreign trade balance" a page was taken to support the British contention that American foreign business was not affected. The London foreign office insisted it has proof that many American shipments to Scandinavia and Holland were designed ultimately for Germany. The British still claim the right to hold up shipments from these neutrals in case they suspect Germany was the starting place.

Germany's note concerning the Frye incident was also received but was deemed far less important than the British series.

GERMANY IS UNDECIDED

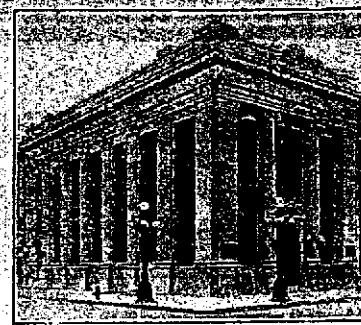

Not Determined Whether American Note Shall be Answered.

(By United Press.)

Berlin, (By Wireless to Sayville,) August 2.—"Contrary to published reports the imperial government has not yet decided whether the American note shall be answered," said a semi-official statement issued today.

"The government is awaiting the text of the coming American note to England."

CITIZENS NOT URGING ACTION

Do Not Want Blackmail Charges Investigated But Prosecutor is Going Ahead Anyway

CHURCH MEMBERS INVOLVED

Old Badger Game With Variations Was Worked And Man And Wife Are Held in Jail

(By United Press.)

Tipton, Ind., Aug. 2.—Prominent citizens of Tipton, many of whom are said to be church members, are not urging Acting Prosecutor Mount to investigate further the charges of black mail against Gilbert Robinson. But Mount, despite this, is going right ahead with an investigation that may disclose some of the choicest scandal brought forth in Tipton county.

The old Badger game, worked with variations for centuries always finds the male sex an easy victim, is said by Mount to have been the means by which Mr. and Mrs. Robinson blackmailed many Tipton men.

The alleged scheme was unearthed following the killing of Walter Varner by Mrs. Robinson. Mrs. Robinson shot Varner, she said when he tried to break into her house.

Mount's theory, which he says the evidence substantiates, is that Mrs. Robinson, by her wiles induced men to visit her. At an opportune moment Varner would surprise Mrs. Robinson and her companion, and would then notify the woman's husband. Robinson, all anger, would then demand money on the threat of a full exposure that would ruin the victim's home.

Mount's theory was that Varner was killed when he refused longer to be the go-between. Robinson and his wife are held in jail.
